

Invitation to online webinar from the RIX Centre

People with profound and multiple disabilities and the internet
Thursday 20 February 2025 | 1pm to 3pm

Book your place now

	We like to share pictures online
	Sharing online can help people to be seen and heard
	People who have PMLD are people first! They have feelings and experiences. They find communication difficult
	They may not understand what it means to share information online
	They may not be able to consent to online sharing
	So parent-carers may consent for them

	Is this OK?
	Can we explain online sharing?
	How can we involve them?
	What are your ideas?

What will happen in the webinar

Keynote talk

- Professor Máire Messenger Davies from Ulster University
Key issues in sharing information online

What we do in our work - short talks

- Ben Simmons, Bath Spa University
- Catherine de Haas, Parent, doctoral student Southampton University
- Julie Calveley, Director NAC-wellbeing, learning disability nurse
- Gosia Kwiatowska, Director, and Paul Watts, Reader in Media, RIX Centre
- Taylor Anderson, Project Officer, Challenging Behaviour Foundation
- Liz Tilley, Professor of Learning Disability Studies, Open University
- Rachel Barker, Expert Practitioner, Dorothy Goodman School

Discussion

Preparation

To prepare for the webinar, please read these guides.

Easy read guide about people with PMLD

Easy read guide about using the internet and social media

Easy read guide about consent

Easy read guide about ethics – rights and wrongs in research and everyday life

Book your place now

We look forward to seeing you there!